

1 December 2014

Green Cross Health Acquisition of Access Homehealth confirmed

Green Cross Health Limited (GXH:NZX) confirmed today that the acquisition of Access Homehealth Limited (Access), a provider of home healthcare services to more than 16,000 people in New Zealand, has been completed.

Access, previously owned by Rural Women New Zealand, has revenues of approximately $85m and around 4,000 employees, who are dedicated to giving clients the care and support they need to live independently in their communities.

The acquisition continues the growth strategy previously outlined by Green Cross Health to become a leading provider of primary healthcare services in New Zealand.

ENDS

About Green Cross Health

Green Cross Health is a primary healthcare provider, delivering integrated healthcare solutions to New Zealanders. Listed on the New Zealand Stock Exchange (GXH:NZX), the company represents around 300 community pharmacies under the Life Pharmacy and Unichem brands, 49 medical centres, community nursing via a 50% investment in Total Care Health and now has significant presence in home health care through Access Homehealth.

About Access

Access is one of New Zealand's leading healthcare providers, specialising in home-based healthcare and support, and has been at the forefront of community health for 87 years. Working with the Ministry of Health, DHBs and ACC, Access cares for more than 16,000 people nationwide. A skilled team of nurses and support workers provide services to give clients the care and support they need to live independently in their community.

Contact:

Debbie Yardley, Communications Manager, Green Cross Health
+64 21 470 773
debbie.yardley@greencrosshealth.co.nz